

IN NORTH TOPEKA

Honeywell Meetings Growing More Popular Than Ever.

Evangelist Pleases All—Prof. Clase a Good Singer.

INDIAN CREEK FAIR A SUCCESS

Stanley Hartzell of Shorey Is Painfully Injured.

Other News of Interest in North Shawnee County.

Interest in the tabernacle meetings which are being conducted by Rev. I. E. Honeywell is increasing rapidly and the meeting Friday night was the best that has been held. The tabernacle was filled to capacity. A large number of children from the schools of North Topeka attended these services as the guests of the evening. A large number of high school students also attended. These children attended in a body.

The platform was decorated with school colors and colors of the city. Tabernacle and school yells were given. There was lots of enthusiasm. Mr. Clase, the evangelistic musical leader, taught the children several "catchy" songs. They simply captured the audience. Plans are being made to accommodate a unusually large crowd Sunday and to hold two very interesting services.

The Sunday morning service will begin at 10:45 o'clock and the evening service will begin at 7:30 o'clock. The subject of the evening sermon will be, "Kill or Cure." There will be a special sermon at 2:30 o'clock at which all the Sunday school scholars will occupy the center of the tabernacle.

In his sermon last night, Rev. Mr. Honeywell even excelled all former attempts since coming to North Topeka. If his hearers were not stirred with a determination to win in life, it was because there was nothing in them to stir.

Rev. I. E. Honeywell, evangelist, who is conducting the tabernacle meetings in North Topeka, has met with success in convincing man of the error of his way. His boyhood training and experiences since attaining his majority have fitted him for hard work and qualified him to explain or express his ideas in a manner which convinces all classes that man should devote a part of his time to spiritual devotion.

Rev. Mr. Honeywell is a good, likable fellow. After a few minutes' conversation one is practically convinced that the speaker has experienced some of the rough side of life. He has not always been a preacher—he had to spend much time in getting an education.

He was a student at Queen's college in Kingston, Canada, for six years, and while there he was instructor in boxing. As a boy he had practiced the art and was well recognized in amateur ranks. He was active in other lines of athletic work. He has never done professional work in the squared ring.

In his experience before enrolling at the Canadian college, and while instructor, he attained considerable ability and a peculiar crouch—peculiar to boxers. He has never outgrown or overcome this feature of his training. Even now while in the pulpit he often is seen crouching and using his fist in an athletic manner while impressing some thought upon the mind of the entire congregation.

The evangelist is full of pep and delivers a number of hot shots as a part of every sermon he preaches. He favors revival meetings and declares that one who does not is wrong. He says, "They are poor friends of God and humanity who do not believe in revivals. They slander two-thirds of the Christian people of the land by declaring the beneficial results of such campaigns. If a church is not saving souls it ought to apologize to the community for taking the money. Any church that is not evangelistic is a blight to the community."

Rev. Mr. Honeywell is highly pleased with the city of Topeka. He learned with much joy that there were no saloons, prize fights and few of the lawless element, before coming to the city. He was an assistant to Billy Sunday for four years.

In conducting a series of revival meetings, he attempts to get down to the bed rock of facts by explaining the point of origin of crime and conduct which is not conducive to upright manhood.

Indian Creek Grange.

The ninth annual fair of the Indian Creek grange, which was held this week, was the biggest, the best and most successful fair ever held by the organization. The managers and members of the committee who made the arrangements and managed affairs while the fair was being held, did themselves proud and have been given favorable comment by many who attended.

It is estimated that at least 1,500 people attended the fair Friday. The stock judging and final awards in all other departments were made. A big chicken dinner also was one of the attractive features. A large number of people from the city and farmers for miles around attended. Many drove to the grange hall in automobiles, others in other kinds of vehicles, while 175 boys from the Industrial school walked. The boys of the Industrial school gave an exhibition of drill during the morning. The gate receipts and receipts from the chicken dinner were at least one-third larger than on any former occasion. Dinner was served to more than 600 people.

Sheffield Ingalls, candidate for lieutenant governor, made a short address during the afternoon and pleased the crowd. His address was non-political.

The members of the Indian Creek grange are the pioneers in giving grange fairs in this section of the state. They always have been successful and the fair given this week eclipsed all others.
